

Dreamers and Stargazers

PRESENTATION

Role play area – space station
Space displays

Possible Activities

Information Text on Planets,
Researching and creating class book.
Recount – Newspaper writing
Fiction – Stories set in imaginary worlds
Anthony Browne stories and Surrealism in illustrations
Persuasive writing – Why go to the moon

Communication, Language and Literacy (speaking and listening, reading, writing, MFL)

Explore topic through literacy units on story and non-fiction; Learn new vocabulary and develop role play

Mathematical Development (problem solving, reasoning and numeracy)

Follow unit plans.
Daily mental maths.

Possible Activities

Additive Reasoning
Number Sense - Fractions
Multiplicative reasoning
Geometric reasoning – shape
Data Handling

Possible Activities

Skills focusing on;
Balancing
Rolling
Travelling
Jumping
Visits to Branscombe to have lesson led by Gymnastics advisor

Physical Development (PE, Growth and Health)

Gymnastics

THE VISIT/VISITOR Space Dome Experience

Knowledge and Understanding of the World (Geography, History, Science)

Earth in Space
Location knowledge

Possible Activities

Planets in the Solar system
Movement of the Moon
Explanation of Night and Day
Reasons for the Seasons
The apparent movement of the sun.

Our world identifying, oceans, continents, countries, places

Personal, Social and Emotional Development (RE, PSHE, Citizenship, SEAL)

Beliefs and Questions Unit 10
Relationships

Possible Activities

What do Jews believe?
What is Passover?
How do Jews celebrate Shabbat?
Moses as a leader

Important relationships
Understanding each other

Creative Development (Art, D&T, Music, Dance, Role Play)

Develop art and design techniques through use of clay, pattern, product design and investigating ideas .
Music Performance.

Possible Activities

Pastel planets – colour and technique
Modelling – creating an imaginary world using paper mache and clay
Music skills, layers, texture tension and resolution.
Music composition
Music appreciation 'space'
Surrealism in art

ICT Activities

Compose World
Word – Produce a class book about planets of the Solar System
Animation Program
Use digital/computer mapping – Looking at our world/places using online maps

Understanding of faith, beliefs and cultures

Jewish faith
Peace and Christianity
Daily worship

Modern Foreign Language

German – Counting, greeting